VIDEO MATERIAL

Auditionees are required to submit video recording materials for the audition. Recording should be a fair representation of the contestants' abilities but does not need to be of a professional quality. Auditionees must submit either one or two video recordings.

The repertoire choice is free; with no time limit.

Accompaniment

Auditionees will not be discriminated against for their choice of accompaniment (live piano accompaniment, track, or no accompaniment)

Final Round of the Auditions via Live Stream

Auditionees prepare a piece or a movement from the repertoire list (see Appendix 1)

Instrumentalists:

- If you audition with a movement of a Concerto, prepare up to 15 minutes
- If you audition with a full Concerto, prepare material from each movement (up to 30 minutes total)

Vocalists:

- Prepare two or three arias or songs of up to 15 minutes in total
- For larger vocal works up to 30 minutes in total

FINAL OUTCOME

A selected group of performers will receive an invitation to perform with a live Orchestra in the capacity of a soloist.

Auditionees who do not advance to the next round will be invited to a specially organized workshop/masterclass (online) focused on audition preparation and everyone will receive a participation certificate.

THE ARTISTIC COMMITTEE

The Artistic Committee evaluates the video material submitted, and the final selections of winners are based on the same recordings submitted.

APPLY

- A completed online application form
- Up to two video recordings uploaded online (YouTube or other video platform)
- Application fee - $250 USD
